The winery, small yet highly functional, is mainly equipped with stainless steel tanks, ensuring greater hygiene and operational efficiency. Some wines are aged in small French oak barrels (barriques). Our estate is also fitted with a small bottling and packaging facility, as well as a storage cellar where the wines are kept at optimal temperatures to ensure proper preservation.

In the picturesque hamlet of Cantrina, in Bedizzole, the Averoldi family has been producing wine for several generations. No one in the family remembers who first began the winemaking tradition, but the walls of the 18th-century cellar undoubtedly enclose centuries of history, where tradition is interwoven with innovation. Today, Francesco Averoldi, Filippo Averoldi, and their family are committed to protecting their territory and sharing it with the world.

The Costaripa winery was founded in 1928 in Moniga del Garda, on the shores of the lake of the same name. Since then, the estate has always placed the enhancement of its territory at the heart of its vision, focusing exclusively on the production of wines of the highest quality. The company philosophy is based on the pursuit of the fullest expression of the land and grape varieties, with particular attention to environmental sustainability and the protection of biodiversity. Experience, passion, and the philosophy of one man can break long-standing preconceptions: in this spirit, Mattia Vezzola has reinterpreted the sensory profile of Valtènesi Rosé—the most noble and representative wine of Lake Garda—making it unique and contemporary.

We are based in Pozzolengo, a small village in the shadow of the Tower of San Martino della Battaglia, near the beautiful town of Sirmione, located in the southern area of Lake Garda; our company was founded in 1984 by the Sbruzzi brothers, Massimo Sbruzzi and Giorgio Sbruzzi, who, with the knowledgeable support of their father Sergio Sbruzzi, began producing a fine wine for personal consumption and a few friends, alongside dairy cattle farming, which was widespread in the area; over the years, thanks to continuous improvement and growing experience, the estate gradually converted land previously used for animal feed into vineyards, evolving into a true winery with wines sold abroad; vineyards and olive groves are the soul of our land, and we produce wines and olive oil of the highest quality.

The Materossi family, owners and founders of Azienda Agricola Monte Cicogna, located in Moniga del Garda on the Brescia shore of Lake Garda, began their winemaking activity as early as 1908 with its founder Pietro Materossi. Today, after more than a century of history, the Materossi siblings—fourth generation of the family—Maria Grazia Materossi, Alessandro Materossi, Luigi Materossi, Chiara Materossi, and Cesare Materossi, continue the legacy left by their father Piero Materossi with the same philosophy and dedication as in the past.
